WE'RE FOR AMERICA! AMERICANS!

THERE are 80,000 characters in the Japanese language; and it would take a Philadelphia lawyer to tell 't'other from which.

THE LEDGER regrets the spirit which prompts destruction of private property. It is just as much a violation of law to destroy a tollgate as it is to destroy a man's house or his barn. The right of property in this country of ours is recognized by law, and it should be sacredly protected. The men and women who own turnpike stock bought it and paid for it, just as the men and women who own cattle and horses and houses and farms bought and paid for them, and their right to the protection of the law is exactly the same in the one case as in the other. If one may take your pocket-book and go unpunished, he may take your horse also; and if he may destroy your tollhouse, he may destroy your dwelling as well.

THE LEDGER—and it is not said boastfully—was first to inaugurate a crusade for the removal of tollgates and making travel free; but it wanted the change made lawfully and equitably, and it still insists upon that way of doing it. The right of property being recognized in your horse, no one has the right to appropriate it without compensation—or prosecution. The right of property being recognized equally in your tollgate,—and there isn't one in Kentucky that has not been established by law,—no one has the right to destroy it without payment—or punishment. The only legal and equitable and just way to make travel free is to buy the pikes from their rightful owners, pay for them, and then remove the gates. It is not only the legal and just way, but it is the way that every good citizen ought to want it done.

John W. Marrs, whose tragic death at Lexington caused such a sensation, had $7,000 insurance on his life, $2,000 of which was payable to his two sisters, Misses Ida and Roberta, $2,000 to his wife and $3,000 to his mother. His sisters have made over their portion to Miss Helen, the wounded daughter.

WASHINGTON OPERA-HOUSE.
The Jolly Pathfinders Will Give a Matinee Tomorrow.

Grand Rapids (Mich.) Democrat.
The Redmond Opera-house was crowded last night by an audience as jolly as were the Jolly Pathfinders themselves. It was nonsensical, it was funny almost to excess. Arnold Grub was after grub in the most laughable manner. Henry Meek was awful meek. Teddy was as funny as the funniest stage Irishman. All the characters were in harmony with the idea of mirth for the million. The play has a cheery plot which is panned forth at a lively pace. A charming young girl, a nice young fellow with a thin pocket book are passionately in love with each other. Jolly father, lynx-eyed mother, a happy couple, don't want the daughter condemned to the diet of love in a cottage with a cupboard empty, and refuse consent. Elopement is the only remedy. Laughable predicament for the father and mother. The young man's jolly tramp father, a twenty-year absentee, appears and hands over the products of a lucky find of a Colorado gold mine. Consent is readily given now and all continues merry. A number of specialties are given at various points of the play. The house will be crowded at every performance.

Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents for the night performance, and 10 and 20 cents for the Matinee tomorrow afternoon.

For Sale—A Pony Cart and Harness; can be seen at Daulton Bros. Stable.

Mr. W. O. Outten is now agent for The Times-Star at this place. Anyone wanting the paper can notify him and he will deliver it to any part of the city.

Mr. Ward L. Smith of Fredericktown, Mo., was troubled with chronic diarrhoea for over thirty years. He had become fully satisfied that it was only a question of a short time until he would have to give up. He had been treated by some of the best physicians in Europe and America, but got no permanent relief. One day he picked up a newspaper and chanced to read an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He got a bottle of it, the first dose helped him and its continued use cured him. For sale by J. James Wood, Druggist.

Churches of Liverpool adopted a petition asking the United States Senate to accept the arbitration treaty.

Miss Kathryn Wright, a Pittsburgh beauty, will wed Sir Edmund Lechmere of England, who in 1895 rescued her from a burning building.

Catarth Cannot be Cured with Local Applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarth is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarth Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarth Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarth. Send for testimonials, free.

Now For '97!

Encouraged by my largely increased business of the past year, and in order to meet the largely increased demands of my trade, have taken advantage of the great depression in business throughout the country, which has been the cause of forcing large quantities of the most desirable goods in my line on the market at extremely low prices, and bought for cash the largest, cleanest and most attractive stock of goods ever offered to the people of this city. Therefore, I am in condition to offer to cash and prompt paying customers the greatest bargains ever offered to the trade and at the same time give them the very best class of goods. My stock consists of every article and much more than can be found in many strictly first-class houses in the country, consisting of:

STAPLE AND FANCY GROCERIES AND CANNED GOODS!

Best Sugar-cured Hams and Breakfast Bacon, Four of various brands—Buckwheat Flour, Graham Flour, Entire Wheat Flour, Wheaties—pure Maple Syrup, best brands of Pickles, Snider's Catsup and Chili Sauce, Pure Cream Cheese, Fruits, both Green and Dried, of all kinds; in fact, every article that can be named and at prices that knock out all competition. My house is headquarters for Poultry, Game and Oysters in season, always fresh and tempting, and when you want the best cakes and bread don't fail to buy my Perfect Flour—it is always the best; and my Blended Coffee has no equal. Watch for my Specials, and don't fail to take advantage of them. I want country people when in our city to make my house headquarters; you are always welcome. And don't forget that I run two wagons regular and will deliver all goods promptly. If you can't come telephone No. 83, and your wants will be attended to. Thanking all for the very liberal patronage of the past, I hope by fair dealing and prompt and polite attention to the wants of the public to merit a continuance of same.

R. B. LOVEL, THE LEADING GROCER.

SPUNKY GREEKS

Notwithstanding the Non-Concurrence of the Powers,

Greece Goes Ahead in Her Effort to Annex the Island of Crete.

Col. Vassos Forming a Local Administration in the Name of the King—Rumors of a Wholesale Massacre of Musulmans—2,000 Killed.

ATHENS, Feb. 10.—The non-concurrence of the powers in Greece's action in Crete does not appear to have anticipated the deterrent effect that was anticipated and Greece is going ahead as though she had the full consent of the powers to her annexation of the island. Col. Vassos, the aide-de-camp of the king, who is in command of the Greek troops in Crete is already forming a local administration in the name of the king of the Hellenes. He is making preparations for the holding of municipal elections, and he will install mayors in all the towns and villages that are not occupied by the forces of the foreign powers. It is stated that Prince Nicholas, the third son of King George, will not go with the troops to the Thessalian frontier, as it was stated Wednesday he would, but that he will join the forces in Crete. It is stated here that the Greek warship Hydra, which was conveying provisions to the Greeks, was stopped by British and Italian torpedo boats.

The situation on the frontier of Greece is very threatening and it would not be surprising to hear of actual hostilities there any time. All the available Turkish troops are being concentrated on the frontier.

CANEA, Feb. 18.—Rumors of a wholesale massacre of Mussulmans at Sitia have reached here, some of the reports placing the number of killed at 2,000, which includes almost the entire Moslem population of the town. It is said that men, women and children were killed indiscriminately by the Christians. It is impossible at present to confirm the reports but the rumors have created the deepest anxiety here. Gen. Bor, who is in command of the gendarmerie at Canea, has sent two Italian officers of the gendarmerie to Sitia in a gunboat to inquire into the truth or falsity of the reports.

The fort at Voucoulis, which is garrisoned by 500 Turkish troops, has been besieged for several days by a large force of well armed insurgents. Wednesday the commander of the besieging force called upon the Turkish commander to surrender and promised safe conduct to any of the garrisons who chose to accept it. The Turks refused to surrender on any terms. It is stated that the garrison has provisions enough to last for 20 days and a plentiful supply of ammunition.

It is reported that Greek troops started Thursday for Voucoulis to aid the insurgents in the capture of the place.

PREMIER THEODOROS DELIANIS, Greece's Grand Old Man.

LONDON, Feb. 19.—The Athens correspondent of the Standard telegraphs that the Greek cabinet had a meeting Thursday, and after a full discussion of the Cretan question decided to persist in the policy regarding the island that it had before agreed upon.

All the reports received here concur in the opinion that the proposal made by Germany that the great powers blockade the Piræus in order to compel Greece to heed the representations made to her, concerning her action in Crete is not likely to be adopted, owing to the opposition of Great Britain and Italy.

ATHENS, Feb. 19.—Despite the action of the powers in restraining the Greek troops in Crete from aggressive operations against the Turks, and the probabilities that that island will eventually be handed over to Greece without the necessity of her fighting for its possession, the war feeling here is increasing hourly. The enthusiasm with which the reserves responded to the call to arms has been fully equalled by the military ardor of volunteers, who are flocking into the city from all parts eager to take part in battle against the Turks.

An indication of what may be expected in the way of assistance from Macedonia in any possible conflict with the Turks is shown in the steady accessions of Macedonians to the Greek ranks. A force of 1,000 Macedonian volunteers in one body crossed the frontier Wednesday and joined the Greek army. In reply to the demand of the diplomats representing the great powers here, that the Greek flotilla commanded by Prince George be withdrawn from Cretan waters at once, M. Skouzes, minister of foreign affairs, sent to each minister a note saying the withdrawal of the flotilla will be impossible until Crete is completely pacified, and furthermore that the Greek government will not rescind its order to the Greek forces in Crete to oppose the landing of Turkish troops upon the island. Col. Vassos, commanding the Greek military forces in Crete, has established headquarters at Conia and is making preparations to attack the town of Selino.
